

SPOKE STREET
MEDIA

Short Form Copy Writer - Job Description

Spoke Street Media creates and curates authentically Catholic content. Our core values include journeying with listeners, promoting a sense of belonging, and striving towards high quality standards because the audience and message deserve greatness. We aim to cultivate a team that is led by the Holy Spirit recognizing that we can't give what we don't have.

Podcasts are also made available for radio broadcast through a partnership with Redeemer Radio and future affiliates. The Short-Form Copy Writer would creatively write and organize content that will generally be two minutes or shorter. While Spoke Street and Redeemer Radio are based in Fort Wayne, the Short-Form Copy Writer may work remotely.

This is a part-time position. Expect an average of about 10 hours per week.

Responsibilities:

- Write short-form content that includes underwriting messages, public service announcements, development spots, prayers, and more
- Schedule spots to air on Redeemer Radio
- Manage multiple projects while hitting deadlines

Qualifications:

- Well-formed Catholic
- Zeal for affirming the good in every person
- Strong work ethic with attention to detail
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills

See SpokeStreet.com for our current podcasts.

Qualified candidates should submit their resume to mariam@spokestreet.com by Thursday, December 23rd.

In lieu of a traditional cover letter, write a 30-second spot telling us why you should be considered for this position.